

Wyong Golf Club Code of Conduct

Approved by the Board of Directors on 6 January, 2016

The Code of Conduct, together with other requirements of players as specified by tournament conditions, local rules and regulations of the Club, shall apply in all golf competitions and representative matches conducted or promoted by Wyong Golf Club. The Code shall also apply to social play.

The following Code of Conduct applies to all members, staff and guests of Wyong Golf Club. Infractions of the Code will be assessed by the Board of Directors or the Match Committee. However, club staff are authorised to approach any person who behaves in a manner which does not adhere to the Code. Serious infractions could result in cancellation of membership privileges, suspension of golf privileges at any time without refund or other disciplinary action as may be required.

Wyong Golf Club will not tolerate:

- any conduct considered threatening or harassing or that could threaten the physical or emotional safety of another individual;
- sexual harassment of any kind, including any conduct, comment, gesture or contact of a sexual nature that is likely to cause offence or humiliation, regardless of whether or not the offender perceived their actions to be unwelcome;
- inappropriate expressions of anger and foul or abusive language;
- any conduct that could result in damage to the property of Wyong Golf Club;
- intoxication

Anyone believed to have consumed alcohol not purchased from Wyong Golf Club will be dealt with accordingly.

All members, staff and guests are expected to read, understand and follow the Code of Conduct along with associated policies that may be published from time to time.

All players are expected to read, understand and follow golf etiquette (see Section 1 – Etiquette; Behaviour on the Course in the Rules of Golf).
